

WHITE TRIANGLE AND MELTING A VARIETIES

by Don Bradt #150

Except for the red spots and the many off-centred coupons, the latest series of store coupons (CTC S27) printed by Canadian Banknote Company (CBN) have been relatively clean. Here are two varieties that I have found in this series.

The first is a small white triangle (bwt) that is found on the back left of CTC S27 coupons as shown in Figure 1. So far I have found it on 5¢, 10¢ and 50¢ coupons as shown below.

5¢

2002 date

0202511889
0206111163
0206111214
0211455072

2003 date

0215011178
0218111514
0219061896
0221961448

10¢

Note: The one's I have found have either "11" or "61" for the 6th and 7th serial numbers.

2002 date

0200211922
0200661177
0203461515, 606
0209761710
0215311466, 664, 938, 982
0216311082
0216411527, 795
0220661754
0222811851
0227061483

2003 date

0233361804
0237761251

50¢

So far: 2003 date

3009961059, 160, 184, 296, 391,
457
3010211205
3011811203, 689, 988
3013311887, 978

Figure 1

Figure 2

There is also the "Melting A" variety (bmla) on the lower right back of CTC S27-E 50¢ coupons as shown in Figure 2.

Known Serial Numbers CTC S27-Ebmla

3010240693
3011040405
3011040504
3011040519
3011040538
3011040575
3011040587
3011040614
3011040699
3011290488
3011440008
3011440176
3011840730