CTC Catalogue Grading Guide

by Jerome Foure #120

Mint	Still in the original unopened wrapper from CTC either Paper or Plastic. (some specialty and earlier catalogues had no wrapper)	VF	Slight creases in cover but still in great shape Cover may show signs of soiling and/or tears Still whole (Staples show signs of rust/Spine starting to break).
UNC	Taken out of wrapper but still as nice as if it were not taken out, (may have opened wrapper with catalogue) (Staples not rusted/Spine not broken).	Fine	Severe creases in cover but no pieces missing. Cover shows signs of soiling and/or tears Still whole. Inside shows wear (Staples rusted/Spine broke).
AU	As nice as possible, cover may not be flat (no wrapper with catalogue) (Staples not rusted/Spine not broken).	VG	Small pieces of the cover missing and soiled somewhat but inside is all there, (Staples rusted/Spine broke).
EF	Slight bends in cover where folded but no creases. (Staples may show signs of rust/Spine shows small amount of wear).	Good	Pieces of the cover missing. Inside and outside soiled (but date still distinguishable) Inside has writing and/or pages missing.

Canadian Tire On A Roll

by Doug Adams #639

On November 10, Canadian Tire announced their summer-quarter earnings, which were up 21.7% - Wow ! Sales for the quarter increased 8.4% to $2.23-billion. The earnings growth was led by the Retail stores, which experienced higher sales. Also helping in the overall gain was Mark's, which had double-digit growth (that was a nice acquisition).

CTC did not dwell on the gas sales, but with prices touching $1.23 per liter, their profitability was higher than last year. The common stock is now over $100 per share, and shows no sign of slowing down.

Another white dot, Oh yeah!

by Thayer Bouck #284

While looking for the white dot in the Bay of Fundy (vol.11 page A-7 Bilodeau Guide) on CTC 8 coupons I noticed another smaller dot nearly below it just under the letter 'D' in the word CANADIAN. It appears in the top frame of the third window from the left on the second floor. I found it on all denominations in this series, with one exception, including the inverted S. The one exception was CTC 9-C 25¢ and only because, I think, due to lack of enough coupons. I don't know if this variety occurs on other CTC series but if you have time it would be interesting to investigate. Go for it!
